The date on which the petition under 37 CFR 1.136(a) and the appropriate extension fee have been filed is the date for purposes of determining the period of extension and the corresponding amount of the fee. The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final Office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. U.S. Patent and Trademark Office PTOL-303 (Rev. 11-03) Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: As explained in detail in the Final Office Action, the claims are clearly met by the prior art. Applicants further argue that in the prior art, the control unit can only receive an interrupt from the external while in the claimed invention, the control unit issues an interrupt to the external. Contrary to Applicants' argument, the prior art clearly discloses that the control unit issues an interrupt to the external. See at least column 7, lines 54-60. See also column 3, line 32 to column 4, line 24; column 7, lines 16-52; and column 8, lines 57-62.
